

Atelier d'automne AATF-MN

« Activités favorites dans la classe de français »

Samedi 1^{er} octobre, 2011

9h30-12h00

Déjeuner chez Loring Pasta Bar et séance de labo d'après-midi facultatifs

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA CLA Language Center
Jones Hall 35, 27 Pleasant St SE, Mpls., MN 55455

Description: This year we're planning a real collaborative sharing of favorite activities and lessons by AATF members and their colleagues. Submit your own favorite digitally to treece@umn.edu by Sept. 25 in one or more of the following four categories and you can attend for free!

Stand-alone lesson plan that can be executed by a substitute teacher who does not know French	 My most popular culture activity or special-occasion / holiday activity	A fun song or music video for listening or sing-along, with lyrics, worksheets, etc.	My most successful or innovative grammar activity or unit
--	---	--	--

Only $10!

Attendees will receive a CD-ROM with a digital versions of all the activities (PowerPoints, worksheets, music and video files, etc.) presented at the workshop.

9h30 Rencontres café-croissants

10h00-12h00 Présentation des leçons et activités

Éléments facultatifs de suite

12h00-13h30 Déjeuner (facultatif, payant), chez Loring Pasta Bar

13h30-15h00 If any members desire, a Language Center computer lab will be made available free of charge after lunch for collaborative work, for instance in peer groups with comparable target audiences, to adapt the elementary materials on the CD-ROM for advanced classes, or vice versa.

Inscriptions par courriel auprès de Rick Treece : treece@umn.edu

Offre spéciale!

Bring along a colleague who is not currently a member of AATF and receive a special prize selected by LaRae just for you!

Nous tenons à remercier le Language Center à l'Université du Minnesota pour sa généreuse offre de l'espace et assistance technique pour cet atelier.